A TENANCY AGREEMENT starting on the 17th February 2026 BETWEEN Coldice Ltd AND Jose Garcia for a period of 12 (twelve) months: 17th February 2026– 16th February 2027 in the property known as 59E Main Street, Randalstown, BT41 3BB at £650.00 per month. (Inclusive of rates and reviewed annually).

"Landlord" can mean either the property owner or his Agent where the company acts on behalf of the property owner with his consent.

1.1 "The Landlord" means the Landlord named in the tenancy agreement and includes whoever owns the interest in the Property which gives the right to possession of it when the Tenancy Ends

1.2 . The Agent may act on behalf of the Landlord with regard to the collection of rents, contents inventories, property inspections, signing of tenancy agreements and notices to take possession of property. The Agent may also act on behalf of the Landlord in the organisation and authorisation of necessary repairs and/or permission to the Tenant where authority has been given by the Landlord.

1.3 Whenever there is more than one tenant, the full extent of their obligations can be enforced against all of them jointly and against each of them individually.

1.4 A right given to the Landlord to enter the Property extends to anyone the Landlord authorises to enter (including the Landlord's agent and/or surveyor), and includes the right to bring workmen and appliances onto the Property for a stated purpose.

1.5 The singular includes the plural and vice versa; and the generic plural (they/their) is used both for masculine (he/his) and feminine singular (she/her).

1.6 "The Property" includes any part or parts of the Property and, if the context requires, the Contents.

1.7 "The Deposit" includes all or part of it, as the context requires.

2 THE TENANT IS TO:

2.1 Pay the Rent at the time and in the manner stated in the agreement without any deduction, and by standing order if so requested to do so.

2.2 Arrange immediately with the relevant supply company for all accounts for gas, electricity and telephone (if any) at the Property to be addressed to the Tenant in their own name and pay all standing charges for these and all charges for gas and electricity supplied to the Property and for telephone calls made from the Property during the letting period.

2.3 Pay any water rates that become payable during the tenancy period.

2.4 Use the Property as a private residence for occupation by the named Tenant(s), and, if the Landlord has so agreed, by the named Tenant's children under 18. As per named on application.

2.5 Keep the Property clean and tidy and the interior of the Property in good decorative condition, and at least up to the standard existing on the start date. No painting or wallpapering may be changed within the property without prior written permission from the Landlord via ourselves.

Signature:  Signed by:
C9091355F84441D...

2.6 Keep the drains, drainage system free from obstruction.

2.7 Replace broken glass in the windows using only our recommended tradesmen.

2.8 Notify the Landlord/Agent promptly of any defect or disrepair - especially anything that compromises health and safety - in any of the following:

- The structure of the Property;
- The exterior of the Property;
- Installations for the supply of water, gas, oil, electricity, sanitation (including basins, sinks, bath and WCs);
- Installations and appliances for space heating and water heating;
- Other gas or electrical appliances.

2.9 To comply with this obligation, the Tenant can inform the Landlord/Agent in person or by telephone, letter or e-mail. Where the Tenant informs the Landlord/Agent orally, they should confirm this in writing.

2.10 Notify the Landlord/ Agent promptly (where the Property is part of a larger building, such as a flat in a block) of any defect or disrepair in the block which adversely affects the Tenant's use of the Property (see 2.9 above for methods of notification).

2.11 Permit the Landlord/Agent/Tradesmen at reasonable times to enter the Property:

- To inspect/photograph the condition of the Property and the Contents;
- To carry out gas and electrical safety checks;
- To carry out repairs for which the Landlord is responsible.

If there is any damage or disrepair for which the Tenant is responsible, or if any of the Contents are missing, the Landlord may serve on the Tenant a notice in writing specifying any repairs and/or replacements which are necessary and requiring the Tenant to carry them out. If the Tenant does not do so within 28 days after receiving the Landlord's notice, the Tenant is to permit the Landlord/landlords tradesmen to enter the Property, so that the Landlord/tradesmen can carry out the repairs and/or replacements. The full cost to the Landlord of doing this is to be a debt due from the Tenant to the Landlord, which the Tenant will pay immediately. Failure to comply will result in notice being served.

2.12 Keep the Contents clean, and equipment and/or appliances at the property in good working order.

2.12 1 Keep the garden (if any) of the Property tidy, weed free and properly tended, the grass cut and any hedges that belong to the Property at a reasonable height and width.

2.13 Arrange for the chimneys to be swept regularly.

2.14 All facilities within the property must be checked they're being used properly be we instruct a contractor to attend, otherwise the tenant will be responsible for the bill if no fault is found

2.15 Pay in full the Landlord's costs, including legal costs, resulting from any breach by the Tenant of any obligation contained in this agreement, including costs of:

- Repairing damage and disrepair for which the Tenant is responsible under this lease;

Signature:  Signed by:
C9091355F84441D...

- Recovering money from the Tenant, including rent arrears and bank charges for re-presenting cheques.
- A charge of £10.00 to the Landlord's Agent for each letter the Agent, acting reasonably, has to send the Tenant concerning breaches of the tenancy agreement.
- A charge of £10.00 to the Landlord's Agent for each visit to the property the Agent, acting reasonable, has to conduct concerning breaches of the tenancy agreement.
- Pay a charge of £25.00 per hour or part thereof to the Landlord's Agent for any work undertaken by the Agent, acting at the Tenants instruction, concerning breaches or amendments of the tenancy agreement.

2.16 Comply (where the Property is a leasehold dwelling) with the rules which regulate the use of the Property and the conduct of its occupiers.

2.17 Remove any rubbish and return the Property and the Contents to the Landlord at the end of the tenancy clean, tidy and in accordance with the provisions of this agreement. The Tenant is to allow the Landlord access to the Property for the purpose of checking the inventory at the end of the tenancy.

2.18 Prevent infringement of the restrictions in clause 3 below by anyone living in or visiting the Property, or any animal at the Property.

2.19 Pay the Landlord the reasonable cost of replacing the locks and cutting new keys if any keys are not returned to the Landlord when the Tenant moves out.

2.20 Pay and arrange for the removal of all vermin, pests and insects, if infestation begins during the Term, woodworm and wood boring insects excepted, unless such infestation occurs as a failure of the Landlord to fulfil his repairing obligations.

2.21 Use the Property as a private residence for occupation by the named Tenant, and, if the Landlord has so agreed, by the named Tenant's children under age 18. As named on application.

2.22 No business is to be operated from the Property without the Landlord's prior written consent.

2.23 No un-road worthy vehicles or unfit machinery is to be kept at the Property.

2.24 The Property will not be used for any illegal or immoral purpose.

2.25 The Tenant will not hang or display any clothes or other materials from any windows. No flags, bunting or banners are permitted to be attached to the Property.

2.26 The Tenant will permit a 'To Let' or 'For Sale' board to be erected at the Property during any period of Notice being served. Any perspective new tenant or purchaser will be allowed to enter the Property with the Landlord/Agents staff member in order to facilitate viewings of the Property.

2.27 The tenant will keep the property reasonably aired and warmed to prevent formation or build up of condensation, black spot and mould.

2.28 The tenant must take all reasonable precautions to prevent damage by frost and low temperatures.

Signature:  Signed by:
C9091355F84441D...

2.29 The tenant is to ensure that the smoke alarms are operable at all times. The tenant must test for correct operation by the smoke alarm on a regular basis, preferably weekly and if applicable, to replace the batteries with new ones as and when required.

2.30 The tenant must open windows and blinds/curtains to allow sufficient air circulation and natural light into the property

3 THE TENANT IS NOT TO:

3.1 Interfere with or make any alteration to the structure or decorative condition of the Property or (if applicable) the layout of the garden.

3.2 Sell, charge, hire out or remove the Contents from the Property.

3.3 Deface or damage the Property or the Contents (including by use of nails, hooks, screws and adhesives) unless permission has been granted by the Landlord.

3.4 Be guilty of conduct that is a nuisance to neighbours. In particular the Tenant is not to

- make any noise that is audible outside the Property from 11pm to 8am daily;
- Be guilty of harassment or abuse on grounds of race, religion, sex, sexual orientation or disability.
- Use of illegal drugs

3.5 Keep animals at the Property, except with the Landlord's prior written permission.

3.6 Do anything that gives the insurers of the Property and the Contents any reason to refuse payment or increase the premiums.

3.7 Leave the Property vacant for more than 28 consecutive days without warning the Landlord in writing before doing so.

3.8 Keep any dangerous or inflammable substance on the Property, including the garage, shed, outbuilding or parking space within the boundaries of the Property.

3.9 Sublet the Property, take in lodgers or paying guests or share or part with possession of the Property, or transfer the benefit of this agreement.

3.10 Cut down or remove trees, bushes, shrubs or plants in the garden without the Landlord's prior consent (with the exception of hedge trimming).

3.11 Use any garage, outbuilding or parking space within the boundaries of the Property to park any vehicle other than a roadworthy private vehicle.

3.12 Add any aerial, antennae or satellite dish to the building without the Landlord's consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

3.13 Change the locks (or install additional locks) to any doors in the Property, nor make additional keys for the locks without the Landlord's consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld. All keys are to be returned to the Landlord at the end of the tenancy.

3.14 Change the telephone number of the Property without written approval of the Landlord which will not be unreasonably withheld.

Signature:  Signed by:
C9091355F84441D...

3.15 Alter the operation of, or disable, the smoke alarms or burglar alarm (where fitted) - Including alteration of a burglar alarm code.

3.16 Smoking is NOT permitted within the property and any damage/staining caused by a breach of this clause will be chargeable to the tenant for restoring the property to its original condition.

4 If any rent or other money payable by the Tenant to the Landlord under this agreement is not paid within 7 days of the date it becomes due, interest on it is payable at 5% per annum above bank base rate, calculated on a day to day basis from the due date until it is paid, and the interest is to be compounded every three months.

SPECIAL CONDITION

a) If the tenant does NOT wish to remain in the property after the end of the fixed term then one month's prior notice from the Contractual Date to Quit should be given to the Landlord or Agent (4 weeks from tenant and 8 weeks from landlord if continued tenancy is less than 10 years and 12 weeks from both if continued tenancy is more than 10 years.

Notice to Quit during a Fixed Term Contract which would effectively end their Contract early can ONLY be taken from a tenant with the Landlord's consent. In this instance, conditions will apply as outlined in 5.3 and 5.5 below.

b) If the Guarantor acting for the tenant should withdraw their agreement after the fixed term then the tenants Contractual Agreement will automatically lapse into a Periodic Agreement with no fixed date for termination being stipulated unless another suitable Guarantor can be provided by the tenant prior to the end of the original Agreement.

c) The Landlord holds the right to take back possession of the property should they come under any financial hardship or need the dwelling for their own personal use.

d) If changing the shower head, please ensure it is compatible with the main shower unit as incompatibility will cause the unit to fail which you will be liable to replace.

5 DEPOSITS

5.1 If the Tenant fails to comply with the Terms of the contract and as a result the Landlord suffers loss, the Landlord may take an amount from the deposit as outlined in point 5.3 below

5.2 The Landlord will keep the Deposit in a Security Deposit Scheme until the end of the tenancy(as from 01st April 2013). This will be done within 28 days of receipt of the Deposit. Relevant 'Prescribed Information' has been provided at the point of signing you into your home. Full details on Tenancy Deposit Scheme can be found on www.tdsnorthernireland.com

5.3 The Deposit is to be paid to the Tenant at the termination of the Tenancy less the following:

- Unpaid Rent

Signature:  Signed by:
C9091355F84441D...

- The cost to the Landlord of cleaning the Property and Contents (including carpets, curtains and other soft furnishings) when the tenancy ends which is excessive to normal wear and tear in relation to the duration of the time spent in the property by the specified persons named in the application form. This will also include any clearance, bin emptying, cleaning and garden maintenance.
- Unpaid utility bills or phone bills

5.4 If the Deposit is not enough to cover these costs, the Tenant is to pay the Landlord on demand such further amount as the Landlord needs for the purpose. (Including increase of rent).

5.5 Please note that rent will still be due up to the official end of the tenancy or until a suitable replacement tenant has been sourced by the Landlord/Agent.

5.6 The Tenant agrees that should the appliances provided be damaged due to misuse they will be liable for all costs.

5.7 The Landlord/Agent will be present at point of check out. All damages or likely deductions will be discussed at that stage and signed up to by both parties. If there is a difference of opinion then the Tenancy Protection Scheme will be called upon to adjudicate.

5.8 Deposit will be lost if fixed term contract is broken

6 SUBJECT TO CLAUSES 7 AND 8 BELOW, THE LANDLORD IS TO:

6.1 Keep the structure and exterior of the Property in repair;

- Keep in repair and in proper working order the installations in the Property for the supply of water, gas, electricity and sanitation and to ensure that the Property has a current gas safety certificate (if applicable);
- Keep in repair and proper working order the installations in the Property for the space heating and water heating.

6.2 Comply with the obligations regarding Gas Safety and have all gas appliances, flues and other fittings checked annually to make sure they are safe and working satisfactorily.

6.3 Comply with the obligations regarding Electrical Equipment to ensure the safety of electrical appliances at the Property.

6.4 Comply with the obligation regarding Furniture and Furnishings to ensure that all of the Landlord's upholstered furniture, as well as beds, headboards, mattresses, sofa beds, futons, cushions and pillows meet fire safety standards.

7 Unless there is threat to human safety, the obligations on the Landlord at clause 6.1 do not apply until the Tenant notifies the Landlord of the defect or disrepair. The Landlord's obligations do not extend beyond those suggested or imposed by statute, and are to be interpreted as such.

8 The Landlord does not have to carry out work which has become necessary because of the Tenant's breach of their obligations.

9 If the Landlord or the Landlord's mortgage lender is entitled to repossess the Property the tenancy automatically comes to an end upon the making of a court order for possession on those grounds, even if the order is made during any fixed period of the tenancy.

10 INSURANCE

10.1 The Landlord is not providing any insurance cover for the Tenant's possessions. The tenant may wish to take out insurance for their own contents. Please note your own contents will only be covered by your own insurance.

10.2 The Landlord will be insuring the Property and his own Contents (where applicable) for normal insurable events.

11 HOUSING BENEFIT

For any Tenant that is liable for support in meeting their rental commitments.

11.1 The Tenant authorises the NIHE or any other relevant government department to discuss with the Landlord and/or the Landlord's Agent the details of any Housing Benefit claims made at any time in relation to the renting of the Property.

11.2 If the Landlord so requires, the Tenant consents to any Housing Benefit being paid direct by the NIHE to the Landlord or Agent directly.

11.3 The Tenant agrees to refund to the Landlord any Housing Benefit overpayment recovery, which the relevant authority seeks from the Landlord in respect of this tenancy, either before or after the Tenant has vacated the Property where this creates a shortfall in the money owed to the Landlord.

I have read the tenancy agreement and fully understand my liabilities and obligations with regard to being named tenant in 59E Main Street, Randalstown, BT41 3BB. I also received a copy of the Tenancy Agreement, Rent Book Information, and Prescribed Information made on 17th February 2026 between the Landlord and the Tenant/s.

I/we agree any and all personal information can be forwarded to relevant third parties such as Landlord, recovery agents and court proceedings for financial recovery.

DETAILS OF THE SCHEME AND THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION MECHANISM

This deposit is protected in the TDS Northern Ireland Custodial Scheme.

TDS Northern Ireland provides an independent dispute resolution mechanism in the event that the landlord and tenant fail to agree the allocation of the deposit at the end of the tenancy. Further details are contained in the 'What is the Tenancy Deposit Scheme Northern Ireland' leaflet supplied.

The Scheme can be contacted at:

Tenancy Deposit Scheme Northern Ireland

PO Box 2105

Belfast

BT1 9RD

Tel: 08450 940 740

info@tdsnorthernireland.com

www.tdsnorthernireland.com

HOW THE DEPOSIT WILL BE RETURNED AND THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH SOME OR ALL OF THE DEPOSIT MAY BE RETAINED

At the end of the tenancy the deposit will be allocated between the tenant and landlord in accordance with the procedures set down in the tenancy agreement.

The tenancy agreement sets out the circumstances under which the landlord may retain some or all of the deposit. These are to be found in the following sections of the tenancy agreement:

Section 5 - DEPOSIT

In the custodial scheme, the landlord will apply to the Scheme to seek the repayment of the deposit. If the tenant agrees, the Scheme will repay the deposit in accordance with that agreement.

If the parties disagree, then the matter may be referred to the dispute resolution mechanism and an adjudicator will decide how the deposit should be repaid.

PROCEDURES THAT APPLY WHEN THE TENANT IS NOT CONTACTABLE AT THE END OF THE TENANCY

In the custodial scheme, if the tenant is not contactable at the end of the tenancy the landlord can apply to the scheme setting out what deductions should be made from the deposit.

In the event that the tenant is not contactable at the end of the tenancy, the landlord should apply to TDS Northern Ireland to return the deposit. If the tenant does not respond within 35 working days of receiving the landlord's proposal, the deposit will be paid out in accordance with the landlord's proposal within a further 5 working days.
